Ranga Rao got his last increment on 1st July 09 & if he had remained in the Sheristadar's office would have been entitled to the next increment from 1st July 1910. But under the present circumstances it is a point for orders whether Note 1 to art 96 of M.S. Regns is not a bar to his drawing the increment of his Substantive appointment.

May the Financial Branch be consulted in the matter?

Submitted for orders.

Mr. Of the experience gained by Dr E. Ranga Rao in his appt. in the Maharaja's College he is likely to be useful to him in this Office, he will be entitled to the concession of counting his service for increment in his present appt. in this office. R. Runga Rao's case differs altogether from those cited as precedents; and note 1 to art: 96-M.S.R applies to officers on deputation is employed on Special temporary duty like those referred to in the precedents. Runga Rao, ~~has~~ whose substantive pay in the Secty is a progressive one has, on the other hand, been appointed to act as Asst Master and Lecturer in Logic in the Maharaja's College Mysore He is not on deputation and the Note to art: 96 is not in his way. He can count the service rendered in the acting appointment towards increments. He earns the present increment by 11 months' service in the Secretariat and one months' in the Maharaja's College.
